Dear Shona and Beth:

I would like to officially welcome the Coalition of Reading and English Supervisors of Texas as the newest affiliate of the National Council of Teachers of English. We're most happy to have your newly formed affiliate on board and joining the other NCTE affiliates as a part of the NCTE affiliate network in the United States and Canada.

Following are links to materials to serve you in your relationship with the Council as well as to help you in your "intraaffiliate" relationships

- A most important resource for you and the governing board of your group will be the Affiliate section of the NCTE Web site.
- Specific information to assist affiliate leaders.
- Information on the affiliate regions and the Standing Committee on Affiliates.
- The Annual Schedule of NCTE Affiliate Requirements and Events.
- The list of NCTE affiliates and their contact information.
- General information about NCTE.
- The NCTE Constitution.
- The NCTE Policy on Involvement of People of Color.

Please note that all affiliates are entitled to at least one representative on the Board of Directors and are required to send a representative to attend the meeting at least every three years. I hope a CTCTE representative will be able to attend this year's meeting on Friday evening at the Annual Convention in Houston.

Once again, welcome! Please feel free to contact me (lmcnabb@ncte.org; 703-402-5576) or Linda Walters-Moore (lwaltersmoore@ncte.org; 217-278-3632) for assistance on any affiliate matters.

Sincerely,

Lu Ann McNabb
Program Manager, Affiliated Groups and Outreach
